THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD AND PRESIDENT

August A. Busch, Jr.

August A. Busch, Jr. became president of the Cardinals when Anheuser-Busch, Inc. purchased the club in February, 1953. Twenty years later, in March, 1973, he became chairman of the board. At a board of directors meeting on March 27, 1974, Mr. Busch was elected to the positions of chairman of the board and president.

Mr. Busch is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Anheuser-Busch. The company has main offices in St. Louis with breweries in St. Louis, Newark, N.J.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Tampa, Fla.; Houston, Texas; Columbus, Ohio; Jacksonville, Fla.; Merrimack, N.H. and Williamsburg, Va.

Mr. Busch began with the company in 1924 as general superintendent and, in 1926, was elected second vice president and a member of the board of directors. He became president in 1946 and was elected chairman of the board in April, 1956.

He was commissioned a major in the U.S. Army Ordnance Department in 1942. In July, 1945, he retired from active service with the rank of colonel. For his war-time service, he received several citations and the award of the Legion of Merit.

Mr. Busch served as president of the St. Louis Bicentennial Corporation, formed to give leadership and planning to the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of St. Louis.

He served for 13 years as Chairman of the Board of Civic Progress, Inc., a non-profit organization of civic leaders devoted to revitalization of the St. Louis area; a member of the board of the St. Louis Symphony Society; was chairman of St. Louis University's successful $18,000,000 Development Fund Drive; a director of St. Louis Union Trust Company, First National Bank in St. Louis, General American Life Insurance Company and St. Louis Municipal Opera.

Mr. Busch received the Fleur-de-lis award, the highest award given by St. Louis University, in November, 1960; received The Man and Boy Award from the National Boys' Clubs of America in November, 1966; was presented the "Citizen No. 1" award from the Press Club of Metropolitan St. Louis in 1967, and received an Honorary Doctorate of Laws Degree from St. Louis University in 1966.

Since 1964, Mr. Busch has served as chairman of the public relations committee of the United Fund in St. Louis.

THE GENERAL MANAGER

Bing Devine

Delegating authority and overseeing the day-to-day operation of the Cardinals is the responsibility of Bing Devine.

Bing served as Cardinal general manager from 1957 through most of the 1964 season, then was general manager and president of the New York Mets from 1965 through 1967.

But on Dec. 5, 1967, after Stan Musial had announced that he was stepping down from his position of Cardinal general manager to devote more time to his business interests, Red Bird President August A. Busch, Jr., called a news conference and told the members of the press:

"We have been talking about who was the best man for the St. Louis Cardinals. Certainly, we did not want to settle for less than the most outstanding man we could find. We were looking for someone who knew the Cardinals and their operations, inside out. The name of Bing Devine came up number one every time."

So Devine, the "Major League Executive of the Year" in both 1963 and 1964, was back with the Cardinals.

In 1963, the Cardinals finished second in the National League race, and Devine's trades, the ones that made Cardinals out of Curt Flood, Lou Brock, Dick Groat, Bill White and Julian Javier, played a major role in the sudden resurgence of the Red Birds.

The Cardinals were not to be denied in 1964, however, as they brought St. Louis its first NL pennant in 18 years. And following that, of course, was the triumph over the New York Yankees in the World Series.

A hero-worshipping member of the Cardinals' Knothole Gang as a youngster, Devine is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis, where he earned letters in both baseball and basketball.

Between semesters, he helped compile statistics in the Cardinal office and, in 1939, advanced to an assistant's role in the public relations department.

Bing started his administrative career in the St. Louis farm system in 1941 at the age of 24, when he was business manager of Johnson City, Tenn., in the Class D Appalachian League.

The following year involved half-season hitches as business manager at Fresno, Calif., and Decatur, Ill., and 1943 marked the start of a three-year World War II stint with the Navy Fleet Air Wing in the Pacific.

Following his discharge from the service in 1946, Bing was named general manager of Columbus, Ga. After winning two-straight pennants at Columbus, he was brought back to the Cardinals as assistant to President Fred Saigh after the late Bob Hannegan and Saigh acquired control of the Red Birds. The association led to Bing's appointment as general manager of the triple A team in Rochester in 1949.

Bing served at Rochester for seven years. The late Johnny Keane (1950) and Harry Walker (1953) won International League pennants under his administration, and Walker won the Junior World Series in 1952.

In November, 1955, Bing returned to the front office of the parent club as executive assistant to General Manager Frank Lane, whom he succeeded on Nov. 12, 1957.

In March, 1973, Bing was given the additional title of executive vice-president.

Bing lives in Ladue, a St. Louis suburb, with his wife, the former Mary Anderson. They have three daughters – Mrs. Joanne Schaumburg of Knoxville, Tenn.; Janice and Jane; and two grand-children - Devin Leigh Schaumburg, 5, and Russell Vaughan Schaumburg, 4.

THE MANAGER

Red Schoendienst (2)

Red Schoendienst, a popular and talented performer during his more than 14 years as a Cardinal player, now holds the longevity record for Red Bird managers. His ten year tenure surpasses that of Branch Rickey, who was Cardinal manager for a little more than six years.

The 52-year-old Schoendienst, who played in 1,795 games and collected

1,980 hits as a Cardinal, (2,449 in his career) has guided the Red Birds to two National League pennants and one world championship during his ten years as manager.

Under Schoendienst, the Cardinals finished seventh in the National League in 1965, sixth in '66, first in both '67 and '68 and fourth in the leagues' Eastern Division in both '69 and '70. In 1971 Red led the Red Birds to the second best record (90-72) in the National League and a second place finish. The 1972 edition finished fourth in the East. The Red Birds finished a close second in the N.L. East in both 1973 and 1974.

The Red Birds won the 1967 title by 10½ games and the 1968 race by nine games. They defeated the Boston Red Sox in the 1967 World Series, and lost to the Detroit Tigers in the 1968 classic.

Schoendienst was named the National League's Manager of the Year by the Associated Press in both 1967 and 1968.

Red first appeared on the St. Louis scene in 1942, when he left his Germantown, Ill., home and attended a tryout camp at Sportsman's Park. His main goal was to see that night's game with the Dodgers, but the Red Bird scouts were impressed with Schoendienst's ability and signed him to a contract for $75 a month.

Red had severely injured his left eye while in the Civilian Conservation Corps, and the impaired vision gave him trouble while batting righthanded against righthanded pitchers. As a result, he trained himself to be a switch hitter and became one of the best in the game.

In his first major league season, 1945, Red played left field for the Cardinals. The following year, Cardinal second baseman Lou Klein jumped to Mexico, so Red moved to second base and helped pace the Red Birds to the pennant and World Series triumph over Boston.

Red was the second baseman for the Cardinals until Frank Lane traded him to the New York Giants in 1956. He was with the Giants only one year, then was traded to the Milwaukee Braves in June, 1957.

As Milwaukee won its first pennant and defeated the New York Yankees in the World Series in 1957, Red was an important factor, but he was sidelined with injuries most of the 1958 season, when the Braves won their second-straight pennant.

At the end of the 1958 season, routine X-rays showed that Red had tuberculosis. Part of his right lung was removed in an operation in February, 1959. He returned to play for the Braves in 1960, but was given his unconditional release at the end of the season.

Red returned to the Cardinals in 1961. In the early part of the season, he was used as a pinch hitter, then was promoted to the coaching staff when Johnny Keane succeeded Solly Hemus as Red Bird manager in July. Red appeared as a player in both 1962 and 1963, but concentrated solely on coaching in 1964.

Red was born on Feb. 2, 1923, and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four children – Colleen, 24; Cathleen, 23; Eileen, 18; and Kevin, 16.

THE COACHES

VERNON (VERN) ADAIR BENSON (8)

The Cardinal third base coach is in his sixth season as a member of Red Schoendienst's staff...this is his second hitch as a Cardinal coach.

A former infielder-outfielder, he played briefly in the major leagues with the Philadelphia Athletics and Cardinals...got his start as a manager in 1956 with the Cardinal organization at Winnipeg and moved up through Winston-Salem, Tulsa and Portland.

Joined the Cardinals as a coach when the late Johnny Keane became manager in July, 1961, and remained with the Red Birds through the 1964 season...was a coach for the New York Yankees in 1965...served as a special assignment scout for the New York Mets during the early part of 1966, then joined the coaching staff of the Cincinnati Reds in July, 1966, after Dave Bristol was named manager.

Was with the Reds through the 1969 season, then in 1970 joined the Cardinals as a special instructor, working with players in the Red Bird farm system...named as a coach in July, 1970.

Born in Granite Quarry, North Carolina, on Sept. 19, 1924...still lives there during the off season and works in real estate...hobbies are fishing and golf... attended Catawba College in Salisbury, North Carolina.

Vern and his wife, Rachael, have two daughters, Bonnie and Robin, and one son – Randy, a pitcher in the Baltimore Orioles organization.

GEORGE MARSHALL KISSELL (3)

The dean of the Cardinal coaching staff is in his seventh season...was a player in the Red Birds' minor league system from 1940 through 1952 and managed Cardinal farm system teams from 1946 through 1967.

From 1964 through 1967, he served as minor league instructor at spring training and during the early months of the season, then took over as manager of the Cardinals' Sarasota team in the rookie Gulf Coast League.

In 1968, he set up the daily training and instructional schedules for the Red Bird farm system teams at spring training in St. Petersburg, Fla., then visited each club during the season to help instruct players.

Managed Cardinals' 1972 entry in the Florida Instructional League to a division title. Also piloted 1973 club. Assisted with 1974 edition.

Born Sept. 9, 1920, in Watertown, New York...now makes home in St. Petersburg, Florida...George and his wife, Ginny have a daughter, Karolyn and a son, Richard...in off season he is a substitute teacher and a high school-college basketball official.

Hobbies are fishing and hunting...a graduate of Ithaca College, Ithaca, New York, he also obtained his master's degree from that institution.

JOHNNY JOE LEWIS (30)

Starts third season as Cardinals' first base coach...signed by Red Birds as outfielder in 1959...saw major league service with Cardinals and Mets...while with Mets hit 10th inning homer to break up no-hitter by Reds' Jim Maloney in 1965... retired after 1968 season.

Worked in Cardinal front office as assistant promotions and sales director for two seasons...was farm system administrative assistant in 1972...named to coaching staff March 23, 1973.

Born Aug. 10, 1939 in Greenville, Ala...now lives in University City with wife June...has five children...attended Washington Junior College in Pensacola, Fla...hobbies are music, golf, and paddleball.

DAVID (DAVE) WILLIAM RICKETTS (14)

In second year with Cardinals...bull-pen coach for three seasons at Pittsburgh ...performs same duties with Red Birds.

Signed with Cardinal organization in 1957...spent all of 1967-68-69 seasons with Red Birds as back-up catcher and pinch-hitter...appeared in 1967 and '68 World Series.

Former basketball star at Duquesne University with brother Dick, former Cardinal pitcher...teaches and coaches basketball at John Fisher College in Rochester, N.Y. during the off-season...managed Aquilas club in Venezuelan League in Winter of 1972-73.

Born July 12, 1935 at Pottstown, Pa...lives in Rochester with wife Barbara and daughter Candy, 13.

GEORGE WARREN (BARNEY) SCHULTZ (33)

In his fifth year as the Cardinals' pitching coach...was the farm system pitching instructor for the Red Birds from 1967 through 1970...started his professional baseball career in 1944...pitched for the Detroit Tigers in the American League and the Cardinals and Chicago Cubs in the National League.

A knuckleball specialist, he had a major league career mark of 20-20...had his best year in 1964, when he played a major role in a dramatic Cardinal finish that gave the Red Birds their first pennant in 18 years and a World Series triumph over the New York Yankees.

In '64, he reported from the Cardinals' triple A farm club at Jacksonville on Aug. 1...in the final 10 days of the season, he relieved in seven of nine games and did not permit a single run...altogether, he saved 11 Red Bird victories while chalking up a 1.65 earned-run-average in 30 appearances.

In addition, he preserved the Cardinal victory for Ray Sadecki in the first game of the Series, permitting the Yankees four hits and one run in three innings... pitched briefly for the Cardinals in 1965, then wound up his playing career with Tulsa in 1966.

Born Aug. 15, 1926, in Beverly, New Jersey, and still lives there during the off season...Barney and his wife, Fran, have a daughter, Barbara, and two sons – Barney and Paul...hobby is golf.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)

Outfielder Ht: 5-11 Wt: 170
Bats: Left Throws: Left Born: 6-18-39 at El Dorado, Arkansas

BECAME CARDINAL: June 15, 1964 in trade with the Chicago Cubs. The Cardinals got the contracts of Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth in exchange for the contracts of pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Smashed major league one-season and National League career records for stolen bases...moved from ninth to second on all-time major league career list...stole 118 bases in 153 games.

Gathered many post-season awards...selected Sporting News "Man of The Year"...named Major League Player of the Year by The Sporting News and Baseball Digest...named to Associated Press Major League all-star team...named to The Sporting News and United Press International National League all-star teams.

Chosen National League Player of the Month for August...finished second to Steve Garvey (270-233) in voting for the National League's Most Valuable Player...placed fourth in balloting for the S. Rae Hickok Award.

Thrown out on his first steal attempt of the season, by the Pirates' Mike Ryan in 6th inning on opening night, April 5...stole 28 straight bases before being thrown out by Phillies' Bob Boone in 5th inning May 21...fell short of Max Carey's record of 31 consecutive thefts... streak was longest of Brock's career, topping 21 straight at beginning of 1969 season.

Reached the 40 stolen base level on June 11, beating previous career mark by 6 weeks...stole his 50th base July 3 against Cubs to extend his major league records for most seasons with 50 or more stolen bases and most consecutive seasons with 50 or more...both now stand at ten.

Missed 6 games from May 26-June 1 with shoulder injury suffered while diving for ball in Chicago...returned to lineup June 2 and stole 2 bases against Padres.

65th stolen base of the season was number 700 of his career, in first inning of July 29 game at Chicago...Wrigley Field was also site of career steal 600 on July 30, 1973.

Enjoyed biggest series of the season against Phillies August 3-5 in St. Louis...was 10-17 at the plate and stole 8 bases in 9 attempts...stole 2 bases in August 3 contest...singled to drive in tying run in 9th inning and scored winner after stealing second...stole one base in first game of August 4 doubleheader...began three scoring innings with three thefts in night-cap...saluted by fans with "Lou-Lou-Lou" chants...stole 2 more bases in Aug. 5 contest... Cardinals won three-of-four to move past Phils into first place.

First theft of Aug. 3 game moved him past Honus Wagner into fourth place on all-time career stolen base list...named National League "Co-Player of the Week" July 25-August 4... batted .323 for the week and stole 8 bases in 10 tries.

Reached the 90 steal mark with two thefts in San Diego August 28...stole 4 bases against Giants in 8-1 win September 1 at Candlestick Park...four theft game put him at 98 for season...was third "four-bagger" of career.

Wanted to break Wills' record on September 2-10 homestand for St. Louis fans, including leftfield "Brock Base Burglars" and he succeeded.

Stole 100 and 101 Sept. 6 against Mets and reached 103 with two steals against New York on the 8th...went hitless against Phillies September 9 and was thrown out attempting to steal after walking.

Brock singled in the first inning off Dick Ruthven before crowd of 27,285 on Sept. 10... after a strike to Ron Hunt, Brock took off for second and went to third when Boone's throw went into center field...stolen base 104 tied Wills' one-season mark and gave Lou a new National League career record with 739.

In the seventh, Brock led off and singled to left again...after again waiting for a one-strike count to Hunt, Brock took off again and slid in safely with number 105...the game was stopped as Cardinal players rushed to congratulate Brock and he was presented with the record base by Hall of Famer "Cool Papa" Bell.

Stolen base 109 in Pittsburgh September 17 moved him past Eddie Collins into second place on all-time career list.

Stole number 110 in Pittsburgh September 18 and 115 against Pirates in St. Louis on the 23rd...final theft of the season came in 4th inning of September 29 contest in Chicago.

Batted .306 to reach .300 mark for fourth time in career...led Cardinals in at bats, runs, and hits...scored over 100 runs for 6th time in career...batted .324 against righthanded pitchers.

Singled and stole second in All-Star Game...it was his first all-star hit.

Hit above .300 against six teams – .417 vs. Atlanta, .408 against Houston, .373 vs. Philadelphia, .340 against San Francisco, .328 against Chicago, and .306 vs. Los Angeles.

Moved into Cardinals' all-time top five in 6 categories – games (tied for 5th), at bats (2nd), runs (2nd), hits (3rd), triples (5th) and total bases (5th).

Set a major league record for most years leading the major leagues in stolen bases with six...set a National League record for most seasons with 600 or more at bats (11) and extended his own league mark to 11 seasons of consecutive 600 or more at bats...helped Cardinals tie a league record by leading the league in stolen bases 13 years as a team... teamed with McBride for new 2 teammate stolen base mark.

He was hitting only .251 when he was acquired from the Chicago Cubs in 1964, but hit at a remarkable .348 pace the rest of the season to raise his overall batting mark to .315, the top average on the Cardinals and the sixth-best mark in the National League.

Swiped 63 bases in his first full year with the Cardinals, 1965, to finish second in the league to Los Angeles' Maury Wills, who had 94...was the starting left fielder for the NL in the 1967 All-Star game...although he was the leadoff man, he had 76 RBI's, third high on the team behind Orlando Cepeda and Mike Shannon, in 1967, and topped the Red Birds in total extra base hits with 65 (32 doubles, 12 triples, 21 home runs).

Led the National League in doubles, triples and stolen bases in 1968 to accomplish a feat that hadn't been performed in the league since 1908, when the immortal Honus Wagner of Pittsburgh led in these three categories...was the top Cardinal hitter in the 1968 World Series against Detroit with a .464 average, and the 13 hits he collected against the Tigers tied the Series mark for seven games, set by Bobby Richardson of the New York Yankees in 1964...he also stole seven bases against the Tigers to tie the mark he set against Boston in the 1967 Series.

In 1969, he led the Cardinals in batting average (.298), at bats (655), runs (98), hits (195), doubles (33), triples (10) and stolen bases (53)...he grounded into only two double plays in '69, lowest total among National League players who had a minimum of 502 appearances at bat.

In 1970 hit .304 and drove in 57 runs...topped the Cardinals in runs with 114 and was second in both doubles with 29 and hits with 202.

In 1971 he posted the second highest batting average of career (.313) and led the majors in runs scored (126)...topped the Cardinals in at bats (640), doubles (37) and walks (76) and was second in total hits (200) and triples (7)...was fourth time in his career for 200 or more basehits ...had a 26-game hitting streak, the longest in the NL that year.

Had an 18-game hitting streak, the second longest in the N.L., from June 12 to July 1, 1972...during the streak he hit .403...hit .312 against lefthanded pitching...led the league in singles (156)...named to the 1972 All-Star team.

Got off to slow start in stealing base in 1973 but finished with one of his top years in that department...70 stolen bases was the third highest total of his career...led the league in thefts for the seventh time in the last eight years...stole two bases in a game 11 times... swiped three against the Pirates on Labor Day for his first three-theft game since 1971...stole 10 bases against Montreal in 12 attempts, and 9 of 10 against Pirates...was successful against Dodgers 6 times without being caught...stole 16 straight bases from June 10-July 18.

Stole the 600th base of his career in Chicago July 30.

Hit two of the seven homers into the new ten-foot space created by moving in the fences at Busch Memorial Stadium.

BACKGROUND: A graduate of Union High School in Mer Rouge, Louisiana...in high school, played three years of basketball (guard and forward) and four of baseball (pitcher and outfielder)...never batted under .350 and in his senior year hit .536 as a switch-hitter.

Attended Southern University at Baton Rouge, Louisiana for three years majoring in mathematics...named to the All SWAC (Southwestern Athletic Conference) baseball team in 1959 and 1960...his performance for the Pan American Games baseball team in 1959 and a junior year batting average of .352 earned him a bonus offer from the Cubs in 1961...played only 128 games in the minor leagues...in his first time at bat in professional baseball at St. Cloud in 1961, Lou hit the first pitch thrown to him for a home run, and he regards that blast as his greatest baseball thrill.

PERSONAL: Is one of nine children born in El Dorado, Ark., but reared in Collinston, La...lives year-round in the St. Louis area...is considered one of the community's leading citizens due to his community and charity work...is on board of directors of St. Louis Convention and Tourist Board.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)

Pitcher Ht: 6-1 Wt: 195

Bats: Right Throws: Right Born: 11-9-35 at Omaha, Nebraska

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed by Cardinal scout Runt Marr.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Cardinals' all-time top winner has announced that 1975 will be his last season...bounced back from 1973 knee injury to provide one of 1974 season's highlights...threw third strike past Reds' Cesar Geronimo in second inning of July 17 game to become second pitcher in baseball history to reach 3,000 strikeouts...finished the season with National League career high 3,057, trailing only Walter Johnson (3,508) in baseball history.

Got off to usual slow start...was 0-2 after first four starts...stopped Reds 9-2 April 28 for first win and complete game...had 3-3 record before running into five-game losing streak (May 25-June 19)...won four of next six, and after two losses, won four in a row down the stretch in September.

Only shutout of the season was four-hitter over division champion Pirates in second game of June 24 doubleheader...total of 56 career shutouts is most by an active major league pitcher...in NL history, only Grover Alexander, Christy Mathewson, Warren Spahn and Pud Galvin have more career shutouts.

Tossed 24th three-hitter of career at Reds for 3-1 win June 6...was 2-0 against Cincinnati with 2.16 ERA in 3 games.

Struck out 11 Pirates in June 24 shutout, marking 71st time he has fanned 10 or more in one game...was 1-0 vs. Pittsburgh with 1.38 ERA in three games.

Started 33 games to run major league record string to 293 consecutive starting assignments.

Total of 248 career victories is highest among active major league pitchers.

As usual, led Red Bird pitchers in hitting...had four doubles and a triple...was 3-for-4 with two runs scored in 8-1 win over Giants September 1...drove in four runs with double and sacrifice fly in 10-4 triumph at Chicago, September 27.

Led staff in complete games with 9.

Gibby continues to pitch as if he's double-parked...he finished his 9 complete games last year in an average time of 2:00, with the longest taking 2:17 and the shortest 1:39.

In his first full season with the Cardinals, 1961, he ranked fifth in the league in earned-run-average with a 3.24 mark and fourth in the league in strikeouts with 166...suffered a broken right leg in the final days of the 1962 season that caused him to have a slow start in 1963, but he came back strong late in the year to wind up with 18 victories and tie Ernie Broglio for high on the Cardinal staff.

Won nine of his last 11 decisions and had eight-straight complete games down the stretch in 1964 as the Cardinals won the pennant, then won the fifth game of the World Series against the Yankees, 5-2, in 10 innings, and the final game, 7-5...was handicapped by a severely strained elbow that kept him sidelined for 15 days in 1966, but he won 21 games and his ERA of 2.44 was fifth-best in the league.

Suffered a broken right leg on July 15, 1967, when a shot off the bat of Roberto Clemente hit him...won only 13 regular-season games as he sat out for eight weeks, but came back in the World Series against Boston to win three complete games.

In 1968, he was unanimously selected by the Baseball Writers as the NL's Cy Young Award winner, and was selected by a committee consisting of two writers from each NL city as the league's Most Valuable Player...also named the league's best hurler in The Sporting News' poll of players.

Finished the '68 season with a 22-9 record and an ERA of 1.12, best in league history...he wiped out the NL record of 1.22, set by Grover Cleveland Alexander in 1915, and the American League mark of 1.14, set by Walter Johnson in 1913...he set club records in '68 by winning 15-straight games and pitching 13 shutouts (tops in the NL).

In one stretch of his '68 winning streak, he allowed only two runs in 95 innings, one of them coming on a wild pitch that broke a string of 47 straight scoreless innings...he completed 28 of the 34 games he started and never was taken out of a game during an inning all season...led the league in strikeouts with 268 and innings pitched with 305...shut out every team in the league except Los Angeles, and thus became the first pitcher in the major leagues to shut out as many as eight teams in one season...against Detroit in the World Series, he set records with 17 strikeouts in one game, 35 for the Series, seven straight victories and eight complete games.

In 1969, he topped the Cardinal staff in victories (20), starts (35), complete games (28), strikeouts (269) and shutouts (4)...led the NL in complete games, was second to Ferguson Jenkins in strikeouts and was third in the league with an ERA of 2.18.

Joined Sandy Koufax and Denny McLain (and now Tom Seaver) as the only pitchers to win the Cy Young Award more than once when the Baseball Writers' Association of America voted him the 1970 National League honor...was named first on 23 of the 24 ballots...also won the honor in 1968.

Compiled a 23-7 record and a 3.12 ERA in 1970...was named the National League's top pitcher in The Sporting News' annual poll of players...started 34 games and completed 23...broke his own club season strikeout record with 274 and allowed only 13 home runs...beat every other National League club except the Pirates as he became the first Cardinal pitcher to win 20 or more games in five seasons, breaking the club record which he previously shared with Hall of Famer Dizzy Dean...became the first major league pitcher to strike out 200 or more in eight different seasons.

Though he spent 21 days on disabled list in 1971, he had an eventful year...won his 200th game on August 4 and on August 14 he beat the Pirates, 11-0, pitching his first no-hitter ...was 16-13 for the year with a 3.04 ERA (lowest among Cardinal starters)...led the staff in complete games, shutouts and strikeouts...was 12-8 after return from disabled list and won 5 of last 7 decisions...tied for the '71 National League lead in shutouts (5).

In 1972 he got off to an 0-5 start but was 19-6 for the rest of the season after beating the Pirates and Dock Ellis on May 25 for his first '72 win...in 8 starts prior to his first '72 win the Cardinals scored only 12 runs for Gibson, 5 in one game.

After May 25 he put together an 11 game winning streak during which he allowed only 15 earned runs in 97 innings (1.39 ERA) and didn't lose again until July 28.

On June 21 he beat the Padres, 14-3, for his 211th win as a Cardinal, breaking the record held by Jesse Haines.

His 2.46 ERA for 1972 was his lowest since 1969...allowed only 14 home runs in 278 innings...tied with Ferguson Jenkins for second highest complete game total (23)...led the Red Bird staff with 19 wins, 23 complete games, 278 innings pitched, 208 strikeouts and 4 shutouts.

Pitched in his 6th All-Star game in 1972.

Had 11 wins and a 2.81 ERA when he injured his right knee running the bases in the third inning of a game with the Mets on August 4, 1973...missed 56 days (10 or 11 starts) because of subsequent surgery to remove damaged cartilage...Cardinal record while he was out was 20-31...returned to action on September 29 and beat Steve Carlton and the Phillies, 7-1 (6 IP, 5 H, 1 R).

Off to usual tough-luck start in '73 (3-6), but had won 8 of last 12 decisions when injured... of Gibby's 10 losses, 2 were shutouts and in 5 others, the Cardinals scored only 1 run.

On May 8 at Candlestick Park he drew his 242nd consecutive starting assignment, thus breaking Red Ruffing's major league record...Gibby's string dates back to August 31, 1965.

Hit 2 home runs in '73 for a career total of 24 (not including 2 in World Series play), the most by an active major league pitcher...hit his second career grand slam on July 26 against the Mets...lifetime batting average is .207.

Won the Most Valuable Player award and a new automobile from a national sports magazine after both the 1964 and 1967 Series...received Gold Glove Award as the outstanding fielding pitcher in the NL in 1965, 1966, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1972 and 1973... named to the NL All-Star team in 1962, 1965, 1967, 1968, 1970 and 1972...beat every team in the league at least once in 1961, 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1968, and 1969.

BACKGROUND: Competed in basketball and track at Omaha Technical High School, then went to Creighton University in Omaha on a basketball scholarship...competed in varsity basketball with the Bluejays, and played with the Harlem Globetrotters in the 1957-58 season.

ALAN (AL) THOMAS HRABOSKY (39)

Bats: Right Throws: Left Born: 7-21-49 at Oakland, California

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected No. 1 by the Cardinals in the January, 1969, free agent draft. Signed by Cardinal scouts Harrison Wickel and Angel Figueroa.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Developed into one of baseball's top relievers in 1974...used "self-psyching" technique of talking to himself behind the mound to confuse batters and capture fan's fancy.

Got off to poor start in '74...allowed 15 hits and 9 earned runs in first 8 innings pitched... went 12.2 innings without allowing a run, but then gave up 9 runs in next 14 innings.

Put together remarkable streak from July 14-Sept. 19...in 41.1 innings covering 27 appearances, he allowed just 15 hits and 1 earned run, struck out 44, won 5 games and saved 6... from July 14-Aug. 5 (13.1 innings) he allowed just 7 hits and no runs...from July 14-Aug. 24 (25.1 innings) he allowed no earned runs.

Struck out the side with men on 1st and 3rd to save 3-1 win at Philadelphia Sept. 15... beat Pirates with four hitless innings in next game...longest stint of the year was 6 innings in 13-12 game with Pirates Sept. 25...was 3-0 against Pittsburgh.

Was 2-0 with 9 scoreless innings in 7 appearances against Cubs.

Ended the year with 7 game winning streak, longest of the year for a Cardinal pitcher... set new club record for lefthanders with 65 appearances...saved 9 of staff's 20 games...struck out 82 in 88 innings.

Recalled from Tulsa in early June, 1973 and quickly established himself as a mainstay in the bullpen...from August 11 through September 16 (14 appearances and 18.1 innings) the "Mad Hungarian" allowed only 1 earned run while striking out 25 and issuing 2 intentional walks...his first major league save on July 22 against the Dodgers helped the Cardinals move into first place at the All-Star break...fanned 57 batters in 56 innings while allowing only 15 non-intentional walks.

In late season stint with the Red Birds in 1972 he pitched 7 scoreless relief innings while fanning 9...beat the Mets on Sept. 8...pitched in Mexican winter league.

Appeared in one game for the Cardinals in '71...pitched 2 innings of scoreless relief against Houston in the Astrodome...joined the Red Birds in mid-June of 1970...had a 2-1 record and a 4.74 ERA in 16 games...started against the Pirates at Pittsburgh on June 24, but did not figure in the decision...pitched 5.2 innings in that game.

BACKGROUND: Was only 3-6 at Tulsa before recall in 1973 but had 56 strikeouts in 57 innings.

Was 7-12 at Arkansas in 1972, with 142 strikeouts in 145 innings...pitched two 2-hitters and had single game strikeout totals of 16, 13 and 11.

Considerable time on military duty limited his activity in '71...pitched a total of only 43 innings at Little Rock, Tulsa and St. Louis...to make up for lost time he pitched for the Mets' Instructional League club (Cardinals didn't field a team) that winter...worked on his control and change-up and did so well he was picked on the league's All-Star team selected by Florida scouts.

First year in baseball at Modesto had 8-2 record with back-to-back 17 strikeout games... was 8-1 at Arkansas in 1970 with a 3.26 ERA.

Graduated from Savanna High School in Anaheim, Calif...majored in business management at Fullerton, Calif. Junior College...earned All-League, All-City and All-Orange County honors in both baseball and football at Savanna, and twice was named to the All-Conference baseball team while competing for Fullerton.

PERSONAL: Hobbies are hunting, fishing and camping...married the former Dee White on January 24, 1970, and they have a daughter, Lisa, 3.

Spent the winter in St. Louis and made numerous public appearances...proved to be a hit with fans both on and off the field...inspired "I Hlove Hrabosky" bumper stickers late in '74 season...co-hosted sports radio show with Ted Simmons on KMOX...nicknamed "The Mad Hungarian"...pronounces his name Ra-BAH-ski.

LUIS ANTONIO MELENDEZ (26)

Outfielder Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180
Bats: Right Throws: Right Born: 8-11-49 at Aibonito, Puerto Rico

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed by Cardinal scout Chase Riddle.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Hopes to rebound from sub-par 1974 season...is valuable man on team as pinch-hitter and back-up outfielder.

Batted .636 (7-11) against San Diego and .300 (3-10) vs. Los Angeles...had four doubles and three triples among 27 hits in 1974...despite just 1 hit in 15 at bats against Phillies, drove in 3 of his 8 runs against Philadelphia.

Had a triple and drove in two runs as a pinch-hitter.

Was Cardinals' leading pinch-hitter in 1973 with .381 average (8-21)...hit only two homers but both were important...second career grand slam off Reds' right-hander Jack Billingham in 8-0 victory June 13...three-run homer in Montreal Sept. 18 to provide 7-4 win.

In 1973 established career highs in games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, and RBI...had three game-winning hits...hit .359 against Phillies, .353 vs. Pirates, and .313 against Reds.

High point of the '72 season was a pinch-hit grand slam homer against Mets on June 24... added another RBI in same game to establish Cardinal season high in that department...was particularly rough on the Mets for entire season...collected 12 RBI against them on only 11 hits.

In his first full season in the majors (1971) hit .225...however, a tear of the left hamstring, suffered while running out a double, contributed to his low batting average...spent 21 days on disabled list...injury came after he was installed as regular rightfielder...during the two week period when he was a regular he hit .317.

Joined the Cardinals in September of 1970 and impressed, hitting .300 and driving in 8 runs in 21 games.

BACKGROUND: In 1970 had a .306 average with 13 home runs and 71 runs-batted-in for Tulsa in the triple A American Association...tied for the league lead in hits with 155 and topped the circuit in doubles with 34.

Made a steady climb through the Cardinal organization, hitting .274 with Cedar Rapids in the Class A Midwest League in 1968 and .303 with Arkansas in the double A Texas League in 1969.

PERSONAL: Lives in Aibonito during the off-season...is regarded as Cardinals' most eligible bachelor.

TED LYLE SIMMONS (23)

Catcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200

Bats: Both Throws: Right Born: 8-9-49 at Highland Park, Michigan

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected No. 1 in the 1967 free-agent draft. Signed by Cardinal scout Mo Mozzali.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Dropped from .300 batting averages of past three seasons but set new career highs in home runs and RBI...led club in doubles and RBI...tied for lead with 12 game-winning RBI.

Teamed with Reggie Smith for switch-hitting duo with 20 homers and 100 RBI's each...set new club record for home runs by a catcher...17 of 20 homers and 95 of 103 RBI came while catching...had four hits in a game twice and four RBI in a game four times...had team's longest hitting streak for second straight year...hit safely in 15 consecutive games from April 5-20.

Hit two homers against Mets May 15...hit only Cardinals' grand-slam of the season...blast off Dodgers' Geoff Zahn provided 5-3 victory on Ted's birthday, August 9.

Hammered Cubs' pitching for 5 homers, 23 RBI and .466 average...batted .323 against Mets with 2 homers and 11 RBI...drove in 15 runs against Expos and 14 vs. Pirates...12 of his homers and 71 RBI came against Eastern Division teams.

Homered against every N.L. team except Houston and San Francisco.

Appeared in 12 games at first base...was 1-for-2 as pinch-hitter.

Finished fifth in the league in RBI behind Bench, Schmidt, Garvey and Wynn...was second to Bench in home runs and RBI among N.L. catchers...tied for 7th in the league in doubles.

Started slowly as right-handed batter...was hitting .208 against southpaws on August 1... went 19-61 (.311) the rest of the season to finish at .241.

Was chosen for '74 All-Star game but did not play.

Twice named National League "Player of The Week"...May 13-19 (13-24, .542, 3 homers, 10 RBI, 9 runs scored)...September 3-9 (10-22, .455, 5 RBI, 5 doubles).

Led Red Birds in many offensive categories in 1973, including games, average, doubles, runs batted in...tied for homer lead...second in hits...led team in percentage in advancing base runners.

Hit above .300 for third straight year with major league career high .310...also set major league highs in games, at bats, hits, and walks.

One of top switch-hitters in baseball...hit above .300 from both sides of the plate for the first time in his major league career.

Missed only one game in '73...appeared in six games at first base, two in rightfield, and one as a pinch-hitter...had a 19 game hitting streak, team's longest of the season, from August 19-September 8...had 7 game-winning hits.

Hit .347 on the road, .313 at night...feasted on Phillie pitching for .403 average, 3 homers and 15 RBI...hit .385 vs. Reds with 4 HR and 11 RBI...had 10 RBI each against Pirates and Expos...batted .364 against Montreal, .357 vs. Cubs, and .348 against Mets.

Accounted for one of seven homers into area created by moving in Busch Memorial Stadium fences...drove in five runs against the Pirates on June 27 and Phillies on July 2...with Joe Torre, accounted for Red Birds' only back-to-back homers of the season, in third inning of June 27 game at Pittsburgh.

.310 batting average was tops among N.L. catchers...his 91 RBI was second only to Johnny Bench among regular receivers...tied for third in the league with 36 doubles.

Selected to his second All-Star game in 1973...made first appearance at the plate and struck out against fireballing Nolan Ryan...set new Cardinal record by grounding into 29 double plays.

His .303 average for '72 topped regular N.L. catchers (was 9th best overall) and his 96 RBI were second only to Johnny Bench among receivers...also had more hits (180) and doubles (36) than any N.L. catcher...defensively, he was third among N.L. receivers with a .991 fielding average and topped the league with 942 put outs, 78 assists, 928 total chances and 135 games caught.

Led the '72 club with 11 game-winning RBI and broke Walker Cooper's RBI record for a Cardinal catcher (81 in 1943) and Gene Oliver and Tim McCarver's home run record for a catcher (Oliver had 14 in 1962 and McCarver 14 in 1967).

Ted hit only .224 righthanded in 1971...he worked hard during the winter to build up his left arm (lead or control arm for righthanded hitter) by daily throwing a football 30 to 40 times lefthanded...also shot basketballs and hockey pucks lefthanded...continued his hard work in spring training and results showed in a .277 average against lefthanders for 1972.

Was named to his first N.L. All-Star team in '72, but didn't appear...hit two grand slams, May 10th off Dave Roberts and June 10th off Mike Caldwell...still thinks greatest thrill in baseball was catching Bob Gibson's no-hitter.

In 1971 he hit .304 with 77 runs-batted-in in spite of military duty and summer camp... only Manny Sanguillen (81) and Earl Williams (87) among major league catchers had more RBI...was fourth among regular N.L. catchers in fielding with a .989 average...had 12 game-winning RBI.

Started the 1970 season at Tulsa in the Triple A American Association, where he hit .373, then came up to the Cardinals late in May...hit .243 with the Red Birds and drove in 24 runs in 82 games.

BACKGROUND: Ted started his professional baseball career with Sarasota and Cedar Rapids in 1967, then put together two remarkable minor league campaigns and ran away with a pocketful of awards...at Modesto in the Class A California League in 1968, he led the league in RBI's with 117 and in batting with a .331 average...he had 30 doubles, two triples and 28 home runs among his 163 hits and was named both the league's Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player...at Tulsa in 1969, Simmons hit .317 with 88 RBI's, 33 doubles, 16 home runs and 11 stolen bases and was named the American Association's Rookie of the Year by the league's press corps...he also was a near-unanimous choice on the Association's All-Star team.

Competed in baseball, football and basketball (guard) at Southfield High School in Southfield, Mich...earned second team all-state honors in football as a senior, and was all-county and all-league in basketball...a fullback, he received football scholarship offers from Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State, Purdue and Colorado.

In baseball, Ted was his high school's Most Valuable Player in both his junior and senior seasons, and was the star of the A & B Brokers, a club which won the National Junior Championship in the American Baseball Congress tournament at Johnstown, Pa., in the summer of 1966...became a switch-hitter at age 13.

PERSONAL: Majored in speech and radio-television at the University of Michigan, but hasn't received a degree as yet...Ted is the youngest of four children...married the former Maryanne Ellison May 2, 1970, and they have one son – Jon MacArthur, 4.

Co-hosted "The Hot Stove League" radio show on KMOX with Al Hrabosky.

TED CRAWFORD SIZEMORE (41)

Second Baseman Ht: 5-10 Wt: 165
Bats: Right Throws: Right Born: 4-15-46 at Gadsden, Alabama

BECAME CARDINAL: October 5, 1970 in trade with the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Cardinals obtained the contracts of Sizemore and catcher Bob Stinson in exchange for the contract of first baseman Dick Allen.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Lou Brock's "partner in crime"...was at the plate for many of Lou's record 118 stolen bases in 1974...delicate job of batting behind Brock contributed to batting average drop to .250...says Brock, "You have to have the right man batting behind you. I do. Ted Sizemore. He has to be unselfish, because hitting behind me isn't going to do any good for his batting average. He's going to be distracted by me instead of giving his complete concentration to the pitcher."...saluted by Brock during ceremony following 105th stolen base.

On disabled list from July 4-20 for groin inflammation and subsequent surgery...Cardinal record in that time was 4-13.

Had 7 game-winning hits...hit 2 homers, both against the Cubs...the second provided 5-4 win July 28...batted .329 against the Pirates with 8 RBI...hit .292 against Dodgers...batted .333 for month of April and drove in 15 runs.

Stole 8 bases to finish third on team behind Brock and McBride...led club with 18 sacrifice hits...established career high with 70 walks.

Established major league record with Felix Millan for longest errorless game at second base, in 25 inning contest at New York September 11.

Struck out just 37 times in 504 at bats (once every 14 times) to again lead club.

Had best year as Cardinal in 1973... .282 batting average was second highest of major league career...established career high with 54 RBI...led National League with 25 sacrifice hits... was only bright spot offensively in early part of season...was leading team with .333 batting average and 9 RBI when sidelined with pulled hamstring...on disabled list from April 26-May 14.

Hit .350 against Cubs, .329 vs. Pirates, and .320 against Padres...only 1973 homer came in victory at Atlanta August 22...led regulars again in striking out only 34 times in 521 at-bats (once every 15 times).

Ted repeated his '71 batting average of .264 in 1972, but played in 15 fewer games because of several injuries (knee and pulled hamstring)...was still an effective hitter as he tied for second place in game-winning RBI list with 9.

Had best big-league year in stolen bases in '72, succeeding on 8 of 11 attempts...again struck out fewer times (36) than any Cardinal regular, whiffing only once every 13 trips to the plate.

Started the '71 season at shortstop, but nagging wrist injury forced him from lineup and when he returned, gravitated to second base...was in outfield for 15 games in '71...had a 43 game errorless streak at second base and the outfield from July 29 to Sept. 23.

Struck out fewer times (26) than any Cardinal regular...was the fifth toughest to fan in the National League, striking out only once every 20 times at bat.

Was the National League's Rookie of the Year in 1969, receiving 14 of the 24 votes cast by the Baseball Writers' Association of America...as a rookie, he hit .271 and drove in 46 runs... started that season as the Dodgers' shortstop, but was switched to second base after Maury Wills was acquired in trade from the Montreal Expos...proved to be an outstanding clutch hitter in '69, coming to bat nine times with the bases filled and collecting eight hits in a row in that situation.

Was bothered in 1970 by a torn muscle in his right thigh – suffered in a spring-training collision with outfielder Andy Kosco – and was on the disabled list 21 days, but still hit .306 and had 34 runs-batted-in in 96 games.

BACKGROUND: Started in the Dodger organization as a catcher...suffered a broken hand after being hit by a foul tip and returned to play as an outfielder at Spokane in 1968... was converted to a second baseman (the Dodgers thought he was too small to be a catcher) at the Arizona Instructional League in the fall of '68, then Walt Alston put him at shortstop in the 1969 opener.

Born in Gadsden, Ala., but his family moved to Detroit when he was two...at Pershing High School in Detroit, he earned all-city honors three years as a baseball catcher and two years each as a football halfback and a basketball guard...basketball team was runnerup in the state meet his junior year and one of his teammates was Mel Daniels, now a professional cage standout...went to the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor on an athletic scholarship, but dropped basketball and concentrated on baseball...was an All-Big Ten catcher in both 1965 and '66 and was a district All-American in '66...received a bachelor of science degree in education from Michigan in January, 1968.

Had a short but impressive stay in the minors, hitting .330 for Tri-City in the Northwest League in 1966, .295 for Albuquerque of the Texas League in 1967 and .314 with Spokane of the Pacific Coast League in '68.

PERSONAL: Married the former Gloria Barchi on Oct. 2, 1965, and they have two children – Tony, 7, and Nicole, 5...he's the oldest of four children...hobbies are golf, chess and working around the house...lives in Brea, Calif., during the off-season and works as marketing representative for soft-drink firm.

CARL REGINALD (REGGIE) SMITH (7)

Outfielder Ht: 6-0 Wt: 195
Bats: Both Throws: Right Born: 4-2-45 at Shreveport, Louisiana

BECAME CARDINAL: October 26, 1973. The Cardinals got the contracts of Smith and pitcher Ken Tatum from the Boston Red Sox in exchange for the contracts of pitcher Rick Wise and outfielder Bernie Carbo.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Reached 100 RBI mark for first time in career and hammered 23 home runs to lead club in that department...led club in walks as opponents frequently pitched around him.

Compiled slugging average of .528 to finish third in the league behind Mike Schmidt and Willie Stargell...figure was fourth highest in the major leagues.

Hit .309 to tie McBride for team lead and finish 8th in the league...average tied career high...led club in triples and was second in RBI...tied for sixth in the league in triples, despite playing much of the season on injured legs...missed 19 games completely and just pinch-hit in 10 others because of various muscle injuries in his legs.

Homered twice in a game three of the four times it was accomplished by the Cardinals last season...hit two homers in a game twice at Philadelphia's Veterans' Stadium...had 4 RBI in a game 6 times...tied Simmons in leading club with 12 game-winning hits.

Beat Giants with two-run homer in 9th on August 17...homered against every N.L. team except Pittsburgh and Atlanta...was involved both times Red Birds hit back-to-back homers last season...teamed with Tom Heintzelman against Mets May 15 and with Ted Simmons against Dodgers May 27...had four hits against the Pirates April 12.

Batted .320 lefthanded and .291 righthanded...hit four homers against both Phillies and Expos...batted .370 with 12 RBI against Philadelphia and .366 with 13 RBI vs. Montreal... hit .413 against Cincinnati, .381 vs. San Diego, and .353 against Atlanta.

Hit 14 of his home runs at Busch Memorial Stadium...was club's leading home run hitter at home and on road...accounted for all 4 St. Louis homers at Philadelphia in '74...hit 2 homers and a triple and drove in all 4 runs in 4-3 win July 30.

Had 10 game hitting streak from May 26-June 6...during that time he batted .441 (15-34) with 8 doubles, 4 homers and 16 RBI.

Hit only home run in 1974 All-Star Game (off Catfish Hunter).

Led Boston regulars in batting in 1973 with a .303 average...hit .339 righthanded and .290 from the left side.

ELIAS SOSA (38)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190

Bats: Right Throws: Right Born: 6-10-50 at La Vega, Dominican Republic

BECAME CARDINAL: October 15, 1974. The Cardinals got the contracts of Sosa and catcher Ken Rudolph from the San Francisco Giants in exchange for the contract of catcher Marc Hill.

MAJOR LEAGUE: Should team with Al Hrabosky to give Cardinals one of baseball's best right-left bullpen combinations...he's won 19 games and saved 24 in a little more than two seasons in the majors.

Appeared in 68 games in 1974, a total higher than any Cardinal pitcher and three short of his Giants' record-tying 71 appearances in 1973.

Got off to great start in 1974...had 2.31 ERA at end of July...in 5 appearances against the Cardinals last season, Sosa pitched 9.1 innings, allowed just three hits and 1 run, struck out 5 and gained two saves.

Had 18 saves and a 2.88 ERA as a reliever for the Giants in 1973...made one start and allowed 6 runs in 3.2 innings against Cincinnati to inflate his ERA...finished third in Rookie of the Year balloting...was 5-1 after all-star break with 9 saves and 2.49 ERA.

Appeared in 8 games in late-season trial with Giants in 1972.

BACKGROUND: Made steady progress through Giants' farm system after signing in 1968...finished second in ERA in California League with 3.32 mark at Fresno in 1971...was 10-2 with 2.93 ERA at Phoenix in '72 to earn promotion to Giants.

PERSONAL: Lives in Santo Domingo...pronounces his first name E-lee-us.

FARM SYSTEM MANAGERS

KEN BOYER – Tulsa

Ken Boyer, 43, was selected by St. Louis fans as the "Greatest St. Louis Third Baseman Ever" in a 1969 contest. He completed a 17 year major league career in 1969 and the following season returned to the Cardinal organization as manager of the Cardinals' Double A Little Rock farm club, where he guided the Travelers to a second place finish in the Eastern Division of the Texas League. He served as first base coach for the Cardinals in 1971-1972 and managed one of the Cardinals' two entries at Sarasota in the rookie Gulf Coast League in 1973. At Tulsa last year Boyer piloted the Oilers to the American Association Division crown with a 76-58 record. In the playoffs, Tulsa beat the Indianapolis Reds, 4 games to 3, for the American Association Championship. That win gave Tulsa the league championship for the second straight year.

ROY MAJTYKA – Arkansas

35-year-old Roy Majtyka (ma-TEEK-a), an infielder, began his playing career in 1959 with the Cardinals' Keokuk, Iowa farm club and retired after the 1967 season at Little Rock. He managed at Lewiston in the Northwest League in 1968 and spent the 1969 and 1970 seasons at Cedar Rapids in the Midwest League. In 1971 he was named California League Manager of the Year while at Modesto. Roy moved to St. Petersburg in 1972 and the following year led the baby birds to the Northern Division title on the last day of the season and then beat West Palm Beach four games to none for the Florida State League Championship.

JACK KROL – St. Petersburg

Jack Krol, also an infielder, began his playing career with the Cardinals' Ardmore, Oklahoma farm team in 1954 and retired after playing with Burlington, N.C., in 1965. Krol has managed in the farm system since 1966 and piloted the Cardinal farm clubs at Rock Hill, S.C., Cedar Rapids, Ia., St. Petersburg, Fla., Modesto, Ca., Tulsa, Okla., and Little Rock, Ark. In 1973 the 38-year-old Krol led Tulsa to a Western Division title and then defeated the Iowa Oaks in the post-season playoffs for the American Association championship. The Oilers then dropped the Little World Series to Pawtucket, the International League Champs. Last year Krol managed the Arkansas Travelers to a second place finish in the Eastern Division of the Texas League with a 75-59 record.

TOM BURGESS – Johnson City

Tom Burgess first signed a Cardinal contract in 1946. The 46-year-old former outfielder played for eight years on the Cardinals' Rochester and Columbus farm clubs from 1953 to 1960 and appeared briefly with the Cardinals in 1954. He became a coach with Sarasota of the Gulf Coast League in 1968 and from 1969-1971 managed the Sarasota club. In 1972 he was named California League Manager of the Year as he led the Modesto Reds to the league title after a sixth place finish in the league's first half (split season). Tom managed at Arkansas in 1973 and last year piloted one of the Cardinals' two entries at Sarasota in the Rookie Gulf Coast League.

FRED KOENIG – Sarasota

Fred Koenig signed with the Cardinals in 1951 and played in the organization for 12 years. He was an all-star first baseman in two leagues, with St. Joseph, Mo., of the Western Association in 1953 and Allentown, Pa., of the Interstate League in 1954. He turned to managing in 1962 with the Cardinals' Winnipeg farm club. He also spent 1963 at Winnipeg and the following year managed at Sarasota in the Gulf Coast League. Koenig became a manager in the California Angels' farm system in 1965. He won a split-season pennant and playoff at Quad Cities in 1968 and tied for another split-season title there in 1969. He served as first base coach of the Angels in 1970 and '71. He returned to the Cardinal organization in 1972 to manage at Arkansas. He served as director of player development in 1973 and 1974.

JOE MEDWICK – Hitting Instructor

Joe (Ducky) Medwick played for the Cardinals from 1932 until June 1940 when he was traded to Brooklyn. He led the National League in RBI's in 1936 (138), 1937 (154) and 1938 (122), and collected more than 200 hits four times in his career. Ducky had a .324 major league batting average and, in 1937, was the league's Most Valuable Player by winning the triple crown with 31 homers, 154 RBIs and a .374 average. He had been with the Dodgers only a few days when he was beaned. He wasn't sidelined long and continued to hit for good averages. Ducky returned to the Red Birds in 1947 and wound up his major league career one year later. He is now the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor, and makes his home in St. Louis. He was named to the Hall of Fame on January 23, 1968.

BOB MILLIKEN – Pitching Instructor

A member of the Cardinal organization since the end of his playing career in 1962, Bob Milliken has served as farm system pitching instructor since 1971. The 47-year-old West Virginia native pitched batting practice for the parent Cardinals in 1963-64 and served as a coach with the Red Birds from 1965-70. Bob spent the majority of his playing career in the Dodger organization. He pitched for the pennant-winning Brooklyn team in 1953, and hurled against the Yankees in that year's World Series. Milliken lives in Clearwater, Fla.

* – Extra-Inning Game

Caps indicate 25-inning game on September 11th, the longest game in major league history played to conclusion.

25-INNING GAME

The Cardinals and New York Mets engaged in the longest night game in major league history September 11-12, 1974 in New York. The game, longest contest in major league history to be played to a decision, accounted for 11 new major league records and tied 2 major league records.

What looked like a 3-1 Mets' victory was turned into a 3-3 game when Ken Reitz homered with 2 out and a man on in the 9th inning. The next scoring was 16 innings later.

A 9 1/3 inning shutout stint by Claude Osteen highlighted scoreless pitching by Hrabosky, Folkers, Bare, Osteen and Siebert for the Cardinals. Jerry Cram tossed 8 zeroes at the Cardinals, joining Parker, Miller, and Apodaca in stopping the Red Birds.

The shutout spree ended after Bake McBride beat out an infield hit leading off the 25th inning. With Reitz at bat, Met pitcher Hank Webb attempted to pick McBride off first base. As the errant throw sailed into the rightfield corner, the Cardinal speedster rounded third base at full speed and slid home safely as catcher Ron Hodges bobbled the ball.

Sonny Siebert held the Mets in the 25th to gain credit for the victory.

Most Bases on Balls, Intentional, Extra-Inning Game, Both Clubs – 7, N.Y. (4) vs. St.L. (3)

A National League record, for most players used in an extra-inning game, (26 by Cardinals) was broken just two days later when the Red Birds and Phillies engaged in a 17 inning rain delayed marathon at Veterans' Stadium and the Phils employed 27 players. Despite playing 51 innings in two cities in three days the Cardinals won all three games.

THE CARDINALS' WORLD SERIES STORY . . . YEAR BY YEAR

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Red Birds in a mid-season trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth hit .625 for the Series and had three home runs in one game, and Gehrig had a .545 batting average. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs, and he had nine runs-batted-in.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Red Birds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were scored by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge on the Athletics, defeating Philadelphia, four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Red Birds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas-House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner K. M. Landis ordering Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had collided with Tiger third baseman Marvin Owen in the sixth inning, and his actions so infuriated the Detroit fans that they bombarded Ducky with fruit, vegetables and debris when he went to his position in left field in the seventh inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

THE CARDINALS' WORLD SERIES STORY . . . YEAR BY YEAR

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games; lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski hit a decisive triple in the second game, then clinched the finale with a two-run home run in the ninth inning.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 as they defeated the Red Birds, four games to one. The key play of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth inning, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on a sacrifice bunt and jarred the baseball loose from Kurowski's hand. Billy Johnson then tripled to drive in three runs, the Yankees went on to score five times in the inning and Manager Joe McCarthy's powerhouse coasted to victory. The New Yorkers also won the next two games to take the championship.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated and the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The pitchers struck out a record total of 92 batters, 49 of them by Cardinal moundsmen and 43 by the Browns' hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the last half of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's hit to left center, a sprint that surprised relay man Johnny Pesky of the Red Sox and allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand-slam home run to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who topped Cardinal hitters in the Series with a .478 average, smashed a 10th inning home run to win the fifth game, and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig contributed valuable relief help.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in the three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs, a Cardinal Series record.

1968 The Cardinals had a three-game-to-one lead, but the Detroit Tigers stormed back to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship in 23 years. Lefthander Mickey Lolich, a motorcycle enthusiast who played in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain all year, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Red Birds, and set records by striking out 17 batters in the first game and a total of 35 for the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS . . .

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis back in the NL. The team was called the Browns, later became the Perfectos.

1899 The ballclub changed the team nickname from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 Team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the triple crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI's and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the National League batting title with a .424 average, highest mark in the circuit since 1900.

1925 Hornsby again won the triple crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI's and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the triple crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI's and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night game in St. Louis for Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize set a St. Louis home run record of 43.

1946 Home paid attendance topped one million for the first time.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS . . .

1948 Stan Musial won his third National League Most Valuable Player award and led the league in virtually every batting department – average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs-batted-in (131), and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 Cardinals played the first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, then renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a doubleheader against the Giants at Busch Stadium on May 2.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record when he extended his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on Aug. 22 when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch hitting in the sixth inning, collected a double against the Cubs at Wrigley Field in Chicago on May 13, and that dramatic blow was the 3,000th hit of his career.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a solid bid for his eighth batting title as he hit .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first and only Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened the new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. The winning run scored when Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs.

1967 Home paid attendance went over the two million mark for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for an ERA of 1.12, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strike-out record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young Award and he was also named MVP.

1969 On Sept. 15, Steve Carlton struck out 19 New York Mets in a nine-inning game to set a major league record. He lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. He struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different innings. His record was tied in 1970 by New York's Tom Seaver.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second National League Cy Young Award.

1971 Torre wins batting title with .363 average and is named MVP. Gibson pitches his first no-hitter, beating the Pirates, 11-0, on Aug. 14. Schoendienst establishes longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Brock became first major league player to steal 50 or bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extends his major league record for most seasons 200 or more strikeouts to nine. Gibson sets National League record with his 2,786th strikeout, the most lifetime for a righthanded pitcher. Brock extends his record for most consecutive seasons, 50 or more stolen bases to 8. Cardinals draw 50,000,000th fan since 1900.

1973 Brock steals his 600th base and moves into 9th place on the all-time list. Brock sets major league record for stealing 50 or more bases for 9 consecutive years. Gibson moves into second place on all-time strikeout list. Torre gets his 2000th hit and 1000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' one-season mark and Max Carey's National League career record. Lou moves from ninth to second on major league's all-time career stolen base list. Bob Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000, the third highest home attendance in their history. Red Birds and Mets play 25 inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride named "Rookie Of The Year."

CARDINALS' OPENING DAY RECORD

The Cardinals have won 30, lost 43 and tied two on opening days or nights since 1900.

CARDINALS ON RADIO AND TELEVISION

Once again this season, KMOX-Radio (1120 on the dial) will broadcast all Cardinal games at home and on the road.

In addition, KSD-TV (Channel 5) will televise 31 Red Bird road games.

Jack Buck, sports director of KMOX-radio and Mike Shannon will handle the accounts of 162 games. Buck, Shannon, and Jay Randolph, sports director of KSD-tv and radio will handle the telecasts.

Buck, a graduate of Ohio State University, broke into the broadcasting business with a couple of nightly sports shows in Columbus, O. He went on to do Ohio State basketball and football and Columbus and Rochester minor league baseball. A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck handled the first telecast of an American Football League game. He joined the Red Bird broadcast team in 1954.

Shannon, a native St. Louisan, starred on the Cardinals' World Champions of 1964 and 1967 and their National League pennant winner of 1968. Mike's career was cut short in 1970 by the discovery that he was suffering from nephritis, a kidney ailment. He spent the 1971 season working in the Cardinal front office as assistant director of promotions and sales. Mike joined the Cardinal broadcast team in 1972.

Randolph, a graduate of Salem (W. Va.) College, got his start in broadcasting as sports and promotion director of WHAR in Clarksburg, W. Va. He went on to work for several West Virginia radio stations before moving to Dallas in the early 60's. While in Dallas he handled play-by-play of the Dallas Cowboys games. A native of Cumberland, Maryland, Randolph in 1973 did a number of NBC Game of the Week productions as well as the Winter Olympics in Sapporo, Japan. He came to St. Louis in 1966.

Randolph will conduct interview shows before and after each television game.

BUSCH MEMORIAL STADIUM

Busch Memorial Stadium, which has a seating capacity of 50,126 opened for play on May 12, 1966.

The stadium was the main feature of the first phase of a $51,000,000 improvement program of the Civic Center Redevelopment Corp., which also included a 400-room motel a dining and entertainment area, and multi-level parking structures that accommodate 7,400 cars.

The project was financed with private capital except for $6,000,000 in St. Louis City bonds to provide the streets, street lights and other public utility improvements in the area. Thirty-seven prominent civic leaders serve on the Board of Directors and Advisory Board. There are about 300 stockholders.

The Stadium lies in an area bounded by Spruce and Seventh, Walnut and Broadway. The basic structure is concrete with the exception of the movable seat sections, which are steel. The nearly circular stadium has an outside diameter of about 800 feet and covers an area of more than 12 acres.

It is essentially a two-deck stadium with approximately half the seats in each deck. Seats completely surround the playing field, with no posts or columns to obscure the spectator's view. Two sections of 3,600 seats each can be moved from a position along the first and third base lines to a position paralleling the football field.

The playing field is from 10 to 30 feet lower than the surrounding streets. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to the seating area. There are eight major entrances.

The stadium was designed by Sverdrup & Parcel and Associates, Inc. (Engineers-Architects, St. Louis); Edward Durell Stone (Architect-Design Collaborator, New York); and Schwarz & Van Hoefen (Architects, St. Louis).

BUSCH MEMORIAL STADIUM GROUND RULES

OUTFIELD AREA

Fair ball hitting above yellow line in left and right fields or going over inner fence in area between outfield gates – HOME RUN. Ball hitting on or below yellow line is IN PLAY.

Fair ball bounding into field boxes, bleachers, over inner fence in outfield, or enclosed area in left or right field corners or going through or under fences – TWO BASES.

DUGOUTS

Ball rolling onto top step of dugouts (which are at ground level) is IN PLAY.

Photographers' area on outfield end of each dugout shall be regarded as part of the dugout.

Ball thrown by pitcher from the rubber to catch baserunner off first or third base that goes into stand or dugout – ONE BASE.

A pitched, thrown or batted ball that hits anyone on the playing field except as otherwise provided for in the Official Playing Rules is IN PLAY.

Any batted ball hitting automatic tarpaulin container would be FOUL BALL.

Ball going through wire behind plate or lodging in it – ONE BASE on throw by pitcher – TWO BASES on throw by fielder.
